

How Green are the Recovery Plans?

Brussels, 23 March 2021

Edoardo Zanchini
Italy

LEGAMBIENTE

*This project has received funding from the European Union's LIFE programme under grant agreement no. LIFE17 GIC/AT/000039
We acknowledge the support of the European Climate Foundation*

European
Climate
Foundation

Status of the Plan

Draft approved the 12th of January by Conte government

Political crisis

February 12, new government, prime minister Mario Draghi

Italy will receive the largest share of resources from
Next Generation UE

Contents of the Italian plan

6 missions, 16 priorities,
48 lines of action

This organizational structure will not change

No public consultation

The first draft was sent to the Parliament.
Private meetings with selected stakeholders.

TAVOLA 1.2: RISORSE DEL DISPOSITIVO NEXT GENERATION EU PER MISSIONE

	Risorse (€/mld)
	In essere (a)	Nuovi (b)	Totale (c) = (a)+(b)	REACT-EU (d)	TOTALE NGEU (e) = (c) + (d)
DIGITALIZZAZIONE, INNOVAZIONE, COMPETITIVITA' E CULTURA	10,11	35,39	45,50	0,80	46,30
RIVOLUZIONE VERDE E TRANSIZIONE ECOLOGICA	30,16	37,33	67,49	2,31	69,80
INFRASTRUTTURE PER UNA MOBILITÀ SOSTENIBILE	11,68	20,30	31,98	-	31,98
ISTRUZIONE E RICERCA	4,37	22,29	26,66	1,83	28,49
INCLUSIONE E COESIONE	4,10	17,18	21,28	6,35	27,62
SALUTE	5,28	12,73	18,01	1,71	19,72
TOTALE	65,70	145,22	210,91	13,00	223,91

Note: (b) include risorse FSC già previste, da finalizzare agli specifici interventi.

European
Climate
Foundation

Legambiente presented a document with analysis and proposals

Critical points:

-Ineffective measures to accelerate the energy transition.

-Not clear how they can reduce GHG emissions

Building renovation

Mobility and infrastructure

Agriculture

-No identification of the reforms needed in the various sectors

Thank you

e.zanchini@legambiente.it

Legambiente.it

