International training programmes

VLIR-UOS supports a selection of training programmes with a number of scholarships. The training programmes are selected by a commission of experts and the topics can differ from year to year. For 2020 we have a selection of 9 training programmes focusing on a variety of topics:

- Sustainable Development and Global Justice (University of Antwerp)
- Modern breeding techniques for maize (Ghent University)
- International training on Epidemiology, Biostatistics and Qualitative research methods (University of Antwerp)
- International Module for Spatial Development Planning (KU Leuven)
- Summer School for Strengthening Diagnostic and Stewardship capacity for Teaching Hospitals (University of Antwerp)
- Clinical Nutrition – from practice to research questions (KU Leuven)
- A Circular Coaching Program Bridging the Sustainability Needs of Entrepreneurs (University of Hasselt)
- Platform development for an E-learning system in Biostatistics/Statistics (University of Hasselt)
- Empowering Vulnerable Children and Young People (UCLL)

Application deadlines are different for each training programme, please keep an eye on the following pages for more info:
